Sample documents should NOT be construed as legal advice, guidance or counsel. Employers should consult their own attorney about their compliance responsibilities under the FCRA and applicable state law. DISA Global Solutions expressly disclaims any warranties or responsibility or damages associated with or arising out of information provided. Employers seeking credit reports must provide additional notices pursuant to state law.

DISCLOSURE REGARDING BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION

Employer (“the Company”) may obtain information about you from a third-party consumer reporting agency for employment purposes. Thus, you may be the subject of a “consumer report” which may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and/or mode of living. These reports may contain (“driving records”), verification of your education or employment history, or other background checks. Credit history will only be requested where such information is substantially related to the duties and responsibilities of the position for which you are applying.

You have the right, upon written request made within reasonable time, to request whether a consumer report has been run about you and to request a copy of your report. These searches will be conducted by DISA Global Solutions Inc., 10900 Corporate Centre Drive, Suite 250, Houston, Texas 77041, 800-752-6432, www.disa.com. The scope of this disclosure is all-encompassing, however, allowing the Company to obtain from any outside organization all manner of consumer reports throughout the course of your employment to the extent permitted by law.

DISCLOSURE FOR INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORT

[Employer] {"The Company"} may request an investigative consumer report about you from a third-party consumer reporting agency, in connection with our employment or application for employment (including independent contractor or volunteer assignments, as applicable). An "investigative consumer report" is a background report that included information from personal interviews (except in California, where that term includes background reports with or without information obtained from personal interviews). The most common form of an investigative consumer report in connection with your employment is a reference check through personal interviews with sources such as your former employers and associates, and other information sources. The investigative consumer report may contain information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living. You may request more information about the nature and scope of an investigative consumer report, if any, by contacting the Company. These reports will be obtained by DISA Global Solutions, Inc., 10900 Corporate Centre Drive, Suite 250, Houston, Texas 77041, 800-752-6432, www.disa.com.

NOTICE REGARDING BACKGROUND CHECKS AND CREDIT CHECKS PER CALIFORNIA LAW

Employer ("the Company") intends to obtain information about you for employment screening purposes from a consumer reporting agency. Thus, you can expect to be the subject of "investigative consumer reports" and "consumer credit reports" obtained for employment purposes. Such reports may include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. With respect to any investigative consumer report from an investigative consumer reporting agency ("ICRA"), the Company may investigate the information contained in your employment application and other background information about you, including but not limited to obtaining a criminal record report, verifying references, work history, your social security number, your education achievements, licensure, and certifications, your driving record, and other information about you, and interviewing people who are knowledgeable about you. The results of this report may be used as a factor in making employment decisions. The source of any investigative consumer report (as that term is defined under California law) will be DISA Global Solutions, Inc. 10900 Corporate Centre Drive, Suite 250, Houston, TX 77041, 800-752-6432, www.disa.com. The Company agrees to provide you with a copy of an investigative consumer report when required to do so under California law. Under California Civil Code section 1786.22, you are entitled to find out what is in the ICRA's file on you with proper identification, as follows:

- In person, by visual inspection of your file during normal business hours and on reasonable notice. You also may request a copy of the information in person. The ICRA may not charge you more than the actual copying costs for providing you with a copy of your file.
- A summary of all information contained in the ICRA's file on you that is required to be provided by the California Civil Code will be provided to you via telephone, if you have made a written request, with proper identification, for telephone disclosure, and the toll charge, if any, for the telephone call is prepaid by or charged directly to you.
- By requesting a copy be sent to a specified addressee by certified mail. ICRA's complying with requests for certified mailings shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the ICRA's. "Proper Identification" includes documents such as a valid driver's license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if you cannot identify yourself with such information may the ICRA require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history to verify your identity. The ICRA will provide trained personnel to explain any information furnished to you and will provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on you. This written explanation will be provided whenever a file is provided to you for visual inspection. You may be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification. An ICRA may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the ICRA to discuss your file in such person's presence.

Please check this box if you would like to receive a copy of an investigative consumer report or consumer credit report at no charge if one is obtained by the Company whenever you have a right to receive such a copy under California law.

Notice Regarding Credit Checks:

Pursuant to Section 1024.5 of the California Labor Code, the Company informs you that it may obtain a credit report about you from the above-named entity, because you are seeking to work in the following position.

- An employee covered by the executive exemption set forth in subparagraph (1) of paragraph (A) of Section 1 of Wage Order 4 of the Industrial Welfare Commission;
- A position in the state Department of Justice;
- A sworn peace officer or other law enforcement;
- A position for which the information contained in the report is required by law to be disclosed or obtained;
- A position that involves regular access to specified personal information for any purpose other than the routine solicitation and processing of credit card applications in a retail establishment, such as bank or credit card account information, social security number, or date of birth;
- A position which the person can enter into financial transactions on behalf of the company;
- A position that involves access to confidential or proprietary information;
- A position that involves regular access to $10,000 or more of cash; or
- The Company will not obtain a consumer credit report on you.
